Lodge Notes and Fraternal Interests

Heptasophs Consider Age Limit—Winners at Fraternal Whist—Challenge to First Division A. O. U., from Second—French Society Securing Candidates for Class Initiation.

ODD FELLOWS.
Unus lodge, No. 11, expects to make its next working of the third degree an event of more than ordinary interest and has invited Thames lodge of Norwich to be present on that evening. This will be on February 22d. District Deputy Grand Master John A. Peck has completed the round of installations in his district, the work being done for Reliance lodge, No. 29, of Jewett City. He was the installing officer for both Unus and Shetucket lodges of this city, and in May will complete two full terms as deputy grand master, quite an unusually long tenure in this office, to which he was recommended by a unanimous vote of Unus lodge, whose turn it was to recommend a member for this appointment. D. D. G. M. Peck was initiated in Shetucket lodge, No. 27, on May 3, 1886. He was a representative to the grand lodge in 1902. The installation for Reliance lodge, No. 29, of Jewett City, was carried out by D. D. G. M. Peck in imposing form with the assistance of the following members of Canton Unus, No. 3, all in full dress uniforms: William E. Mayo, 24, grand warden; Edward F. Kinney, 24, grand warden; John F. Ambrun, 24, grand recording secretary; James H. Smith, 24, grand financial secretary; Frank C. Jones, 24, grand treasurer; Nelson E. Church, 24, grand scribe.

ROYAL ARCANUM.
Thames council, No. 1851, with Regent George S. Powers in the chair, held its regular meeting Wednesday evening in Foresters' hall, H. B. Eckmark of New Haven, deputy for the two councils in this end of the state, was a visitor. One application was received. The deputy addressed the council upon the subject of increase of membership, as a result of which it will probably be arranged to hold an open meeting at the earliest date possible.

UNITED WORKMEN.
At the regular meeting of Norwich lodge, No. 12, held on Wednesday evening in Germania hall, the principal business was the installation of officers for the ensuing year. The grand recorder reported but four deaths for the month in the state and all claims have been paid to date. The treasury fund now amounts to $12,829.14, and the beneficiary fund to $26,062.58. D. D. G. M. W. D. L. Allen, with the assistance of D. D. G. M. Fred Wilson and D. D. P. G. M. W. John Frank, installed the following officers: P. M. W. Charles W. Worthington; M. W. Fred J. Haglund; foreman, Fred A. Haglund; overseer, John Ringland; recorder, F. S. Edmunds; financier, W. S. Riker; grand scribe, George W. G. James W. Blackburn; I. W. Wilhelm Hamann; O. W. Charles Levisky.

FORESTERS.
The last meeting of Court Sachem, No. 34, held in Foresters' hall, was one of the best attended in some time and interesting reports of the prosperity of the court were rendered. The auditors showed that over $2,200 had been expended in benefit and there was a balance for the quarter. One new member, Joseph Swartzburg, Jr., was initiated in full form and two applications were received. Financial Secretary Joseph R. Portelance made a report of the recent conference held in this city by the grand officers, but no action was taken on their recommendation for a class initiation. The committees for the ensuing six months were reappointed as follows: Auditors, Irving J. Forbes, John J. Kelley, Joseph D. Proffier; finances, Jeremiah H. Healey, J. Forbes, James J. Quinn; arbitration, Joseph T. Panning, Frank T. Sylvia, John J. Kelley; printing, Joseph R. Portelance, Fred Carter, Robert McBride; visiting, Central district, John Callahan, Alexander Carberry, Greenville, J. R. Portelance, Jeremiah H. Healey, Falls, William Shea, John Coleman, West Side, James J. Quinn, Joseph Proffier, Montville, Alonzo Edwards.

ORDER OF BRITH ABRAHAM.
At its last regular meeting, which was held in Swartzburg hall, as the lodge has removed from Pythian hall, Norwich City lodge, No. 62, made its appointment of committees for the ensuing term. The following three for six months: Finance, W. Askanos, chairman, M. S. Sussman, M. Swartzburg, Louis Pressman; relief, Charles Stosberg, M. Polsky, Israel Honkin; sick visiting, city, J. K. Jones, West Side, L. Perky, H. Franklin; peace, Herman Alofsin, Rev. Leavitt, Max Stamm, D. Freeman, H. Franklin; cemetery, the board of trustees, Herman Alofsin, Jacob Simon. These two committees are for a year: Board of Joan-relief fund, Herman Alofsin, chairman; A. Ableson, secretary and treasurer; Max Stamm, Abraham Schwartz, Jacob Simon, M. Swartzburg, K. Swartzburg, Cheyrol Kadisho, Herman Alofsin, chairman; Jacob Simon, vice chairman; Max Stamm, secretary and treasurer. The following committee on law is a permanent committee: Herman Alofsin, chairman, S. Blinderman, M. S. Sussman, A. Ableson, Jacob Simon.

DEGREE OF POCAHONTAS.
Under the auspices of the Neosha club of Sequanah council, No. 11, an enjoyable whist was given Monday evening in Foresters' hall with an attendance of twelve tables. The committee in charge made the evening one of the best of the series. The prizes were awarded as follows: First—Mrs. Fred Boucher, 26, a back comb; Mrs. R. Saunders, 27, playing on the man's counters, a smoking set; second—Mrs. Ada Revell, 45, a lace collar; William Ambrun, 25, a shaving glass; consolation—Mrs. J. A. Clark and Rufus D. Harris. Cake and coffee were served. Before the next council meeting the Neosha whist will hold one of their home evenings on Feb. 5th with Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Culver of Thames street, and will follow this with a regular council meeting, at which they will have three new members to initiate.

REBEKAHS.
Hope lodge, No. 21, held one of the best of its whist series Wednesday evening in Foresters' hall, having twenty-one tables enjoying the game and the social time provided. The fortunate ones to receive prizes were the following: First—Frank Davis, 51, a cake plate; second, Daniel Dean, 47, a fancy dish; Miss Maude E. Allen, 43, a cake plate. The last named had to be decided by cutting, as Miss Allen was tied with Mrs. Saunders with a score of 43. Cake and coffee were served.

TRUTH AND QUALITY
appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing. Accordingly, it is not claimed that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is the only remedy of known value, but one of many reasons why it is the best of personal and family laxatives is the fact that it cleanses, sweetens and relieves the internal organs on which it acts without any debilitating after-effects and without having to increase the quantity from time to time. It acts pleasantly and naturally and truly as a laxative, and its component parts are known to and approved by physicians, as it is free from all objectionable substances. To get its beneficial effects always purchase the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists.

ORDER OF PROTECTION.
Norwich lodge, No. 248, held its regular meeting Monday evening at the Buckingham Memorial hall, having a visit from its deputy, W. J. Walden of New London. The officers of the two local divisions are the delegates and will attend the meeting.

L'UNION ST. JEAN BAPTISTE D'AMERIQUE.
There was a well attended meeting of Lafayette council, No. 207, in Foresters' hall on Thursday evening. Among the business of importance discussed was the formation of a club, to be called the Laurier club, which will have for its object some of the arrangements for entertaining the EASTERN STAR.

A large amount of business was transacted at the afternoon meeting Thursday of the thirty-fifth annual session of the grand chapter of Connecticut, Order of the Eastern Star, at the Masonic temple, Hartford. The list of officers elected was given in The Bulletin on Friday. Reports were made by the committee on printing, jurisprudence, finance, dispensations and charters, appeals and grievances, unfinished business. On behalf of the grand chapter, Past Grand Patron H. Elbert Moffatt of Winsted presented Grand Matron Mrs. Linna E. Pond of New Haven with a past grand matron's jewel. Associate Grand Matron Mrs. Ida E. W. Davis of Collinsville, in behalf of the associate grand officers of Mrs. Pond, made a pleasing speech in which she imparted to Mrs. Pond that upon her return home she would find there a china cabinet, a gift from her associate grand officers for 1908. A motion was passed that a grave marker be adopted for use by the subordinate chapters. A committee, Lewis W. Lawyer of New Britain, Charles A. Taintor of Willimantic, and Mrs. Bertha Schlusser of Bridgeport, was appointed to ascertain the expense of such markers and prepare a design and report at the next meeting of the grand chapter. Among the standing committee appointed was that on necrology, as follows: Necrology—Mrs. Ella Lines of Plainville; Mrs. Neel, Mrs. H. Lippitt, Norwich; Walter E. Hopkins, Torrington; Dr. Edwin M. Ripley, Unionville.

The election of Mrs. Ida E. W. Davis as grand matron was of especial interest to the delegates from Sachem chapter of this city, as she was present at the institution of Sachem chapter, and in the last one of those interested in the institution who will come into the grand matron's place. She announced the following appointments: Grand chaplain, Mrs. Bertha L. S. Gallup, Moorhead; grand lecturer, Frederick L. Hooker, Hartford; grand marshal, Mrs. Hattie Horsford, Collinsville; grand organist, Mrs. Mary L. Guilford, Cheshire; grand altar, Mrs. Fannie Y. Gardner, Milford; grand Ruth, Mrs. Emma Bidwell, Unionville; grand Esther, Mrs. Mary L. Kenyon, Putnam; grand Martha, Mrs. Mary B. Orr, Meriden; grand Electa, Mrs. Jennie A. Wood, Westport; grand warner, Mrs. Edith E. Neal, Southington; grand sentinel, Warren D. Abell, Naugatuck.

Sachem chapter members present at the meeting were: Worthy Matron Dorothy W. Hildebrand, Associate Matron Annie L. Rawson, Past Patron E. D. Kinsman, and Past Worthy Matron Eva Caulkins.

ASTHMA Cured After Suffering 3 Years.

L. U. Lowell, Melburn, Mass., writes: "My son was cured of ASTHMA with RESPIRO REMEDIES in 1902. This was a very severe case. We used the three REMEDIES as directed, and from the first he improved, was soon perfectly well and has never had an attack since." Send for (free) sample. The Woman's Home.

The L. & M. Paint decorates more than two million American homes. Its beautiful finish and lasting freshness distinguishes a residence painted with it from all others. It's Metal Zinc Oxide combined with White Lead which makes it wear and cover like gold. Every 4 gallons of the L. & M. Paint when mixed with 3 gallons of Linseed Oil at 62 cents per gallon makes 7 gallons ready for use. Actual cost about $1.20 per gallon. Sold by L. W. Carroll & Son, Plainfield, Ct.

If you will take Foley's Orino Laxative until the bowels become regular you will not have to take purgatives constantly, as Foley's Orino Laxative positively cures chronic constipation and sluggish liver. Pleasant to take. The Lee & Osgood Co.

Chicago golf players are delighted to have Mrs. Bruce Donald Smith come to live in that city, as Miss Pauline Mackey of Boston, now Mrs. Smith, was at one time the woman golf champion and is at all times a fine player. She will, no doubt, be an inspiration to the already good players of that city.

Grand Limerick Verse Contest $350 PIANO FREE

FIRST PRIZE NEW $350 PIANO
SECOND PRIZE $125 CREDIT CERTIFICATE

And Over $7,000 Worth of Additional Prizes

Fair and interesting. You have the same opportunity as anyone else to win. A beautiful new $350 piano will be given away absolutely free (no charge of any kind—nothing to enter) to the person sending in the best line to complete the Limerick verse shown in the coupon below. Free to all. Read the Simple Conditions.

To homes without a piano this great free advertising Publicity Contest offers an opportunity of a lifetime to secure a piano free or one of the discount credit certificates.

A PIANO FREE FOR A THOUGHTFUL LINE.

There is no catch or chance. Everything is fair and open. Prominent and disinterested judges will make the awards. A clever and thoughtful line. You may think of one in a short time, but be sure and try. By this great contest we will introduce The Plaut-Cadden Piano Warehouses into the homes of piano buyers, and in this way we will sell hundreds of pianos within a year. We get in direct contact with piano buyers as we could by no other method, and we will save the gigantic expense of magazine advertising, canvassing, etc. We also intend to use the clever Limericks for advertising cards. We want everyone desiring a piano to enter. Hallet & Davis, Conway, Wassermann and other pianos here are sold on the one-price system, and each one is the best for the price. Certificate winners are positively assured of a genuine discount.

The Prizes First Prize—A fine new $350 piano. Second Prize—A free credit certificate for $125. The next five best answers will be given a credit certificate for $20. Following these in groups of five or more, each of the contestants sending in the next best answers will be given a credit certificate of $1 less than those previous—that is, first five at $19, next five at $18, etc.—until the entire $7,000 has been awarded.

These certificates are good on the purchase of any New Hallet & Davis or Conway or Wassermann piano or piano player in our warehouses at regular retail price. Time of certificate is limited. Certificates cannot be applied on any purchase made previous to February 27th. Only one certificate may be applied on the purchase of one piano.

SIMPLE CONDITIONS The Limerick shown on the coupon needs one more line. Fill this out. The last line should rhyme with the first two filled out or exact written copy, as no answer will be accepted unless this is done. The best answer will be awarded first prize, others in accordance to their value. All answers must be in this office on or before 5.30 p. m. February 27th, 1909.

Here is a partial list of words that rhyme for the verse below: My, sigh, cry, why, reply, die, reply, forty, thy, sky, nigh, etc.

COUPON
